Titanic Film Review

Titanic is a 1h95min romance-disaster film, directed by James Cameron. It was released in the USA in 1997. The main stars of the film are Leonardo DiCaprio and Kate Winslet.

The film tells a story of a seventeen-year-old aristocrat who falls in love with a kind but poor artist on the luxurious, ill-fated ship, TITANIC. The film explores important themes including the power of love, and the issue of overconfidence.

To conclude, in my opinion this is the best American film I have ever watched. That's why I highly recommend it to anyone who likes romance disaster films.

'Wuthering Heights' Book Review

In my free time, I like to spend my time reading books. Wuthering Heights is one of the greatest tragic novels I have ever read. This novel was written by the English writer; Emily Bronte. Wuthering Heights was first published in the year 1847. The events of the story started when a businessman named Earnshaw, brought to His house a stranger. The stranger has apparently been abandoned. His name was Heathcliff. He made many problems and tricks in order to own the houses of Earnshaw. In my opinion, this is an amazing tragic novel that everybody should read.
